

Scenario 1:

You've been assigned a project you're unfamiliar with:

1. How would you go about learning what is necessary to be successful in the project?
2. How much time would you spend researching?
3. On a scale of 1-10, how comfortable would you be with starting the project unprepared?

Scenario 2:

Think of your "typical" role of Customer Service:

1. Define a Customer Service role that requires the Selfless Driving Force.
2. Define a Customer Service role that requires the Resourceful Driving Force.

Scenario 3:

How would you convince a Harmonious executive that the company website could use a re-design?

Scenario 4:

How would your life be impacted if you thought more like your opposite Driving Force?

Intentional: What if you thought more like Altruistic?

Altruistic: What if you thought more like Intentional?

Scenario 5:

Describe how a Collaborative leader will lead:

Describe how a Commanding leader will lead:
